

What's Developing

Dave Ramsey's Financial Peace University will be offered locally by the Eureka Community Development Company beginning on January 12.

The nine-week course will be held Sunday afternoons 3:00-4:30 PM at the Eureka Information Center. The facilitator will be Pastor Ryan Gage.

There is a charge for the class materials, but anyone wishing to find out more about the class firsthand can attend the class on January 12 free of charge.

To find out more about the course go to www.daveramsey.com. Or locally contact Pastor Ryan Gage at 605-284-2161 or pastor.ryan.gage@gmail.com.

You can use Eureka's unique link to go directly to the local class registration page. There you can register to attend the class and purchase your membership and materials. That link is: <http://www.daveramsey.com/fpu/locations/org/45950/class/234310>

This is the class that was originally scheduled for September 2013, but because there were so many schedule conflicts it was rescheduled for what may be a less hectic time of year.
